

Returns

Please refer to our web site for our full official refund/exchange policy.

Please ensure all components and packaging are present. Important - Do not write address information directly on packaging. Items should be carefully packed to avoid damage during transit.

You may choose to insure the package for the full value when shipping. It may also be necessary to repackage some of the items before shipping. We do not refund for items damaged or lost in transit to us. We do not accept deliveries sent COD.

Any credit or refund will be issued for merchandise only. Shipping charges are non-refundable. Any return/exchange accepted will be shipped at the customer's expense. *Merchant transaction fees will be deducted from credits or refunds due in all instances. A fee of 3% of the grand total of all goods returned (includes original shipping costs) will be deducted from all refunds on goods purchased by credit card or PayPal. Applicable import duties and taxes incurred in receiving goods back into the country will also be deducted from all refunds. A 25% restocking fee will apply in all instances where items are eligible for return.
